FINAL SHOWCASE

Friday, 4:15 p.m.-5:00 p.m., Dance Performance Theatre (187 Richards Building, BYU)

Families of all Ballet Workshop students are invited to attend a brief final informal dance showcase. Parking will be available in the residence hall parking lots of Heritage Halls or in lot 37Y, north of the indoor practice field (IPF) and east of Zions Direct (see the BYU Map link under "Campus Maps" on the General Information portion of our Web site). Youth may leave with their families following the showcase.

FOOD

During the Workshop, Cannon Center meal cards for campus housing participants cover all meals from lunch on Monday to lunch on Friday. Only lunches and Thursday dinner are provided for non-housing participants. Please keep track of your meal cards, which must be presented at each meal. Those wishing to purchase additional meals may do so at the Cannon Center for approx... $10-$16 per meal (Cannon Commons).

HOUSING

Your residence hall room is furnished with linen, bedding, towels, and a pullout drawer for valuables that can be locked (padlock must be provided by the participant). It is possible that the height of your bed may be three to four feet above the ground. Since we cannot change the setup of the room, alternate accommodations should be made if this poses a problem. You may wish to bring a light blanket, since air conditioning in the residence halls is on and they cannot provide extra bedding. Messages can be left for those staying in campus housing by calling the Heritage Halls Central Building at 801-422-4421.

BYU Campus Accommodations charges $30 for lost keys! Lanyards will be provided.

Roommates are assigned two to a room by preference or by age. Overnight counselors are provided on each floor. Each evening will end with a head count, short inspirational thought, and prayer (lights out 10:30-11:00 pm). Please be aware that overnight counselors are authorized to enter a youth participant's residence hall room when deemed necessary such as in emergency situations. For your safety, buildings are locked each night at 11 p.m. and are reopened the next morning at 8 a.m. They are also locked during the day when the youth are at their program.

There will not be any early check-ins.

STANDARDS

Youth attending the Ballet Workshop must maintain BYU standards. Included in these high standards are integrity; respectful language; morality; abstinence from tobacco, alcohol, coffee, tea, and harmful drugs; and modesty in dress. All hairstyles should be clean and neat. Extreme hairstyles are unacceptable. Athletic shorts are acceptable only in the PE and housing areas; shorts worn in other areas must be knee-length. No crop tops, sleeveless shirts, or tank tops are permitted. Dress and grooming standards are strictly enforced on campus. Failure to comply with these standards may result in a request to make appropriate changes and/or dismissal from the Workshop. Due to safety and liability concerns, any participant found in or entering campus construction areas will be subject to immediate dismissal (see the Honor Code link under “Admissions and Standards” on the General Information portion of our website).

Involvement in any of the Big Five will result in your being sent home immediately:

1. Participating in or encouraging sexual relations, or immoral behavior of any kind, viewing or sharing pornography in any form, sexting, or using vulgar or inappropriate or suggestive language, verbally or in text is not allowed.
2. Shoplifting, theft, or vandalism of any kind.

Please note that bullying of any kind (including exclusion, teasing, gossiping, back-biting, cyber-bullying and criticizing) is not tolerated at this Workshop. Participants exhibiting any of these behaviors will be subject to discipline by the director of the Workshop or in extreme cases sent home.

SUPERVISION

ALL participants will be assigned a counselor. Counselors supervise all housing and recreational activities. Students are responsible to the Workshop counselors during sessions and during free times. Participants should never leave their group or counselor. Students who leave their group and go off on their own are subject to dismissal from the Workshop. While attending the dancing sessions, participants in this Workshop will be supervised by the instructors. However, there may be some situations in which the participants are unsupervised—for example, when they are walking to the eating areas and during limited free time, although participants are usually in groups during these times. This should be taken into consideration when evaluating the participant’s eligibility to attend this Workshop.

Dancers are encouraged to begin strength, flexibility, and nutritional training prior to the Workshop to minimize the risk of injury during their stay. Due to the rigors of this Workshop, dancers with existing injuries and health conditions should consult a medical professional before attending the Workshop for their own safety. Any MINOR existing health care needs or injuries must be reported to the Workshop Director. Our office must have on file a medical release form that should have been completed at the time of registration.
